Councilman Even has a question for City Attorney. What do we do when we have an officer who refuses to enforce City Code when we have asked them to? Stephanie's response - They are supposed to act as the enforcement for that situation. We are the requesting agency; we sign a citation and all they do is issue it.

Stephanie: We ask, then we tell, then we enforce. We have a contract with county that requires them to do that. So, we contact the boss at the county and tell him we have an employee that is not currently complying with our contract, would they please make that correction. That is her recommendation.

Mayor Corder said he'd have a conversation with Chief Deputy Crawford about that.
